
#RESIST with INDIVISIBLE

What is INDIVISIBLE? People from all backgrounds coming together in local groups to resist Trump administration policies that aim to undermine our democracy and our rights.

What we do: Local INDIVISIBLE groups use the grassroots actions described in the Indivisible Guide to urge our members of Congress to be a strong voice for us in Washington, DC. Our groups are independent, nonpartisan, and 100% volunteer. Most of us weren't politically active before the 2016 election.

How you can be involved: Join your local Indivisible group and participate with them in town halls, marches and other actions to make sure your members of Congress respond to your concerns.
